Mr. Bipan Ghai, Advocate,
for respondent No.2.

A.N. JINDAL,J.

Besides cancellation report submitted by the investigating agency in case FIR No. 116, dated 28.10.2002, Police Station City Gurdaspur, Chief Judicial Magistrate, Gurdaspur, while exercising its power under Section 190(1)(b) of the Cr.P.C. summoned the petitioners Tejinder Singh Sahdev, Pritam Singh, Sukhwinder Singh and Mohinder Kaur to face trial under Section 366/380/34 IPC.

The matter related to a dispute in which Tejender Singh Sahdev was claiming Gurinder Kaur to be his wife. The matter stood settle between the parties as consequence of which Gurinder Kaur filed a suit for declaration against Tejinder Singh to the effect that she was not his legal wedded wife and restraining him from claiming his wife and the said suit has been decreed. The copy of the judgment and decree dated 14.9.2007, passed by Civil Judge, Jr. Divn, Gurdaspur, has been placed on record.

Counsel for the respondent has no objection to the quashing of the order dated 29.1.2004.

In view of the statement and all the circumstances appearing over the case, this petition is accepted and proceedings shall stand quashed.
